Meet a Ridhwan Teacher

Annette Anderson has been a Diamond Approach student since 2004 and a teacher since 2014.

"Several years before finding the Diamond Approach, while teaching a personal transformation seminar on integrity, I had an epiphany. It arrived as a message about my life and my future. It felt profound, it came from another place than my mind.

I saw that my purpose was to "support people in knowing themselves as spirit." This was the beginning of my transition from a corporate executive to supporting others with their spiritual unfoldment. After this, I began the transition from my corporate career to creating a spiritual coaching and teaching practice..."
