

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

The Post-Pandemic Life to Come

The current coronavirus pandemic has called many former certainties into question. As we wonder about our post-pandemic life, many of us feel a transformation is inevitable. In a special interview Diamond Approach student Enzo Dal Verme asked A.H. Almaas (Hameed Ali) if he thinks we will come out as better people...

Enzo: No matter what side you're on, the general consensus is that the world is deeply polarized and broken. Some people see it as a major wake-up call. What is your take on this?

Hameed: It is not new that human beings experience such suffering, but it is the first time that all of humanity is suffering from the same thing. Most will see it as a wake-up call to be ready for future pandemics or disasters. Waking up can be to something deeper. It can be to the truth that humanity is one, that we are all one family. I think many will wake up to this truth, not the majority. And it is very unlikely that governments will have this waking up.
