

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

DIAMOND APPROACH NEW ORLEANS

THE SOUL'S IMPRESSIONABILITY

OUR BOON OR OUR MISFORTUNE?

One of the central organizing principles of the work of the Diamond Approach is our understanding of the soul.

Our soul is receptive to both external and internal impacts which can leave impressions on the soul. The impressionability of the soul gives us our developmental edge over other known life forms and is also the source of our inner suffering.

Impressionability is clearly a mixed blessing. It gives us the possibility of infinite freedom & flexibility as well as being vulnerable to conditioning which can fixate and bind the soul.

As children, we developed defenses against the impressionability of our soul which can hinder freedom throughout life.

Join us as we explore the impressionability of our soul, how to work with the defenses, & how to regain the freedom of our impressionability through the inner journey of the soul.

Diamond Approach New Orleans, an open group, welcomes the public to this online teaching weekend on September 10 & 11, 2022. There will be talks evoking our depth, meditation and personal inquiry.

---

SEPTEMBER 10 & 11, 2022

10:00 am - 5:30 p.m. CT

LOCATION: Online

FEE: $240

REGISTRATION: For more information or to register, contact andersonannettes@aol.com.
Registration via PayPal.

TEACHERS: Ben Centanni has been a student of the Diamond Approach since 1999, and a teacher since 2016. He is also a public school teacher in Santa Cruz, CA. He is originally from New Orleans.

Annette Anderson has been a student of the Diamond Approach since 2004 and a teacher since 2014. She has taught and assisted groups in Texas and online with the Ridhwan School.. She lives near Dallas Texas.

---

Copyright © 2008-2021 Ridhwan Foundation.